

Check-out integration Requirements

In addition to the technical integration requirements, there are a few additional Riverty requirements that relate to the web store and to the Riverty checkout experience which we request to implement accordingly. These are listed below.

Presentation Riverty T&Cs and Privacy Policy

The Riverty T&Cs and Privacy Policy should ideally be displayed when selecting Riverty as a payment method, but at the latest when completing the order.

If the customer first of all must actively select Riverty on your payment method page, no checkbox is necessary to agree to the T&Cs for the payment method.

Terms & Conditions for payment method Pay in 3:

In the terms and conditions for installment we refer to your store and mention it by name. You will therefore receive a URL created specifically for your store.

If you integrate via a plugin, you do not need to do anything other than adding the given MerchantID with the plugin.

If you integrate directly via APIs, you must make sure that the link to the Riverty T&Cs contains the correct country code as well as your MerchantID.

The MerchantID is a 5-digit code that can be provided by your integration manager.

Example: NL shop with MerchantID = 12345

https://documents.riverty.com/terms\_conditions/payment\_methods/pay\_in\_3/nl\_nl//12345

Specific links to our other payment methods and what text to display can be found here:

Applicable law - Client shop Terms & Conditions and Privacy Policy

There is also something to consider for your own T&Cs and data privacy policy. If you host your store in Benelux, but you want to sell to German or Austrian customers, you may have to adapt the paragraph regarding the choice of law. If you do not mention the applicable law or place of jurisdiction in your terms and conditions, you do not have to do anything. In this case, the applicable law of the country in which the buyer resides automatically applies. However, if you set out applicable law, arbitration clause, jury trial or similar in your T&C, then German or Austrian law must apply for customers residing in Germany or Austria. This requirement is necessary, otherwise Riverty cannot purchase your receivables.

If you have any further questions about this, please feel free to contact your Riverty Integration Manager.

Riverty Logo

Please use this link to implement the logo:
